

Dear Friends of Native Children,

In response to the many inquiries as to how an individual, tribe or organization can be of help to Native American Children's Alliance's (NACA) mission "to improving the response to Native American and Alaskan Native child victims of maltreatment and their families" we are offering a membership opportunity. For each of you who believe in our mission to protect children please join today!

Our services are made possible through the support of individuals like you. We are outside the traditional funding sources and our communities need your support.

Thank you,
Corrine Sanchez, President

"Children, Our Most Precious Resource, Are Sacred And Are Protected."
